

FOR THE 2019-2020 SCHOOL YEAR,
ATHFEST EDUCATES AWARDED

$44,587

TO MUSIC & ART EDUCATORS SO THAT...

ATHENS MUSIC AND ART EDUCATORS COULD PURCHASE:

5 XYLOPHONES

1 CAMERA LENS

8 MUSIC STANDS

40 DRUMS

1 IPAD

10 UKULELES

1 PHOTO PRINTER

1 VIDEO CAMERA

1 MICROPHONE SYSTEM

4 DIGITAL CAMERAS

9 DRYING RACKS FOR STUDENT ART

8 KEYBOARDS

2 GLOCKENSPIELS

7 LARGE SCALE CHIMES

180 6th-8th grade Hillsman Middle band students will be able to film their practice sessions and conduct performance self-evaluations

20 6th-8th grade students will collaborate with professional artist, Broderick Flanigan, to create two public art murals from concept to execution in the Nellie B community as part of a summer youth mural arts program

40 K-2 students will develop their music and instrument knowledge in a free afterschool music education program at the ACC Library

60 hours of professional development for the J.J. Harris Elementary music teacher to earn their Level 1 Orff Certification

4,000 K-8 CCSD students can attend professional theater, dance, and musical performances at the UGA Performing Arts Center

56 6th-8th grade students will participate in the Media Arts Video and Film Club at the Lyndon House Arts Center

81 5th grade students at Barnett Shoals Elementary will collaborate with professional artist, Paula Reynaldi, to create their 5th grade legacy sculpture

278 2nd-5th grade students at Fowler Drive Elementary will begin a new keyboard program

572 K-5 students at Oglethorpe Avenue Elementary will experience a live performance of The Atlanta Opera's English adaptation of Hansel and Gretel

474 K-5 students at Fowler Drive Elementary will create a large scale mural in their school in collaboration with professional artist, David Hale

4,340 Students across eight CCSD elementary and middle schools will experience live performances from violinist and singer, Kishi Bashi and hip-hop artist, Lingua Franca

22 CCSD elementary and middle school music educators will participate in a professional development workshop series focused on building culturally responsive music pedagogy

200 K-2 students at Barnett Shoals Elementary will add large scale chimes to their school playground to create an interactive, musical area for children

315 1st-5th grade students at Stroud Elementary can expand their photography program

TO DATE ATHFEST EDUCATES HAS AWARDED:

$414,000+

in grants to support music and arts education for Athens youth

Grants to all 14 CCSD elementary schools

Grants to 11 ACC nonprofit and government programs

Grants to all 4 CCSD middle schools